

What's New?

Happy New Year from the CAN-ADAPTT team! 2009 was a busy and productive year and 2010 promises to be just as exciting. Thank you for your ongoing interest in our work and feel free to contact us should you have any comments or suggestions.
Warm Regards,
The CAN-ADAPTT Team

Staff Changes

We are sorry to see Louise Walker, Manager of the Coordinating Centre for CAN-ADAPTT leave the project, however, we wish her the best in her retirement. New to the project as of October 2009 are Katie Hunter, Regional Coordinator for Atlantic Canada, and Janet Ngo, Regional Coordinator for Western Canada. You can contact Katie at katie_hunter@camh.net and Janet at janet_ngo@camh.net.

agenda was to wrangle with the draft guidelines compiled by the CAN-ADAPTT team.

Six breakout groups, each representing a topic of the guidelines up for discussion, offered up their revised summary statement after an hour of discussion.

The Centre for Effective Practice (CEP) are in the process of incorporating participant feedback from the day's events to revise the summary statements.

The next guideline revision meeting will focus on system recommendations and population-level interventions.
